UNIT TRUST OF INDIA

Bombay, the 3rd April 1986

No. UT/392/DPD(P&R)3B/Vol.-I/85-86.—The provisions of the Children's Gift Growth Fund Unit Scheme 1986 formulated under section 21 of the Unit Trust of India Act, 1963 are published here below for general information.

CHILDREN'S GIFT GROWTH FUND UNIT SCHEME
1986

In exercise of the powers conferred by Section 21 of the Unit Trust of India Act, 1963 (52 of 1963), the Board of the Unit Trust of India hereby makes the following Unit Scheme :—

1. Short title and commencement

- (a) This Scheme shall be called the Children's Gift Growth Fund Unit Scheme 1986.
- (b) It shall come into force on the 14th April 1986.
- (c) Units will be on sale throughout the year save and except during book closure. Provided however that the Chairman or in his absence the Executive Trustee may suspend the sale of units under the Scheme at any time by giving a week's notice in such newspapers or other media as may be decided.

2. Definitions

In this Scheme, unless the context otherwise requires :—

- (a) the "Act" means the Unit Trust of India Act, 1963 :
- (b) "acceptance date" with reference to an application made by an applicant to the Trust or its agent duly authorised in this behalf for sale or repurchase of units by the Trust means the day on which the Trust or its authorised agent, as the case may be, after being satisfied that such application is in order, accepts the same;
- (c) "alternate child" means the child other than the child in whose favour the units have been issued and as referred to in Clause 6 of this Scheme;
- (d) "applicant" means an individual who is eligible to participate in the Scheme is not a minor and makes an application under Clause 4 of the Scheme.
- (e) "application" means the application referred to in Clause 4 of this Scheme.
- (f) "Child" means any child (male or female) below the age of 15 years.
- (g) "recognised Stock Exchange" means a Stock Exchange, which is, for the time being, recognised under the Securities Contracts (Regulation) Act 1956 (42 of 1956);
- (h) "Regulations" means Unit Trust of India General Regulations 1964 made under Section 43(1) of the Act;

- (i) "Unit" means one undivided share of the face value of Rs. 10/- in the Unit Capital;
- (j) All other expressions not defined herein but defined in the Act shall have the respective meanings assigned to them by the Act.

3. Face Value of each Unit

The face value of each unit shall be Ten Rupees.

4. Application for Units

Application for units under this Scheme may be made by any adult being a parent, a relative or a family friend desirous of participating in this Scheme in favour of the child who has not completed 15 years of age on the date of application in the form prescribed by the Unit Trust of India.

- 5. (i) The payment for the Units applied for by an applicant shall be made by him along with the application in cash, cheque or draft. Cheques or drafts should be drawn on branches of Banks within the city where the office at which the application is tendered is situated.
- (ii) If the payment is made by cheque, the acceptance date will, subject to such cheque being realised, be the date on which the cheque is received by the Trust or by Agency Bank. If payment is made by draft, the acceptance date will, subject to such draft being realised, be the date of issue of such draft provided the application is received by the Trust or a designated branch of an authorised bank within such time as may be deemed reasonable by the Trust. If the amount tendered by way of payment for the units applied for is not sufficient to cover the amount payable for the units applied for, the applicant shall be issued such lower number of units as could be issued under the Scheme, the balance due to him shall be refunded at his cost in such manner as the Trust may deem fit.
- (iii) A Unit Certificate bearing the child's name will be sent by registered post/recorded delivery with or without acknowledgement to the address given by the applicant; the Trust will not incur any liability for loss, damage, mis-delivery or non-delivery of the unit certificate, so sent.

6. Inclusion of an alternate child

An applicant desirous of participation in the Scheme may, at the time of making the application or at any time during the period of the child participates in the Scheme, indicate in the application that, in the event of the child specified in the application dying before attaining the age of 21 years, another child mentioned in this behalf in the application, and being not more than 15 years of age at the time of making the application, shall be entitled to all the rights of the first mentioned child. On the death of the first mentioned child before attaining the age of 21 years, the provisions of the Scheme shall apply as if the surviving second mentioned child had been the only child mentioned in the application.

7. Right of Trust to accept or reject application

The Trust shall have the right at its sole discretion, to accept and/or reject the application for issue of units under the Scheme. Any decision of the Trust about the eligibility or otherwise of an individual to make an application unit certificate so sent.

8. Form of Unit Certificate

The Unit Certificate shall be in Form 'A' annexed hereto. Each certificate shall bear a distinctive number, the number of units represented by the certificate and the name of the child who alone is entitled to the units comprised in the certificate. The certificate will bear the legend "Children's Gift Growth Fund Unit Scheme 1986".

The rights to the units issued under the Scheme will vest only with the child in whose name the relevant unit certificate has been issued by the Trust and shall be held by the child in accordance with the terms of this Scheme.

The applicant, at whose instance the units have been issued in favour of the child, will not have any right whatsoever to these units.

9. Sale of Units

The contract for sale of units by the Trust shall be deemed to have been concluded on the acceptance date. On such conclusion of the contract for sale, the Trust or its Agent, as the case may be, shall, as soon thereafter as possible, send the applicant an acknowledgement therefor. As soon as possible thereafter the Trust shall issue to the applicant one Unit Certificate representing the units issued in favour of the child.

10. Repurchase of Units

(i) No repurchase of units shall be allowed under this Scheme till the child attains the age of 21 years as the gift made by purchase of units in favour of the child is deemed irrevocable. A male or female child shall however have an option to withdraw from the scheme after completion of 18 years of age.

In the event of a repurchase which shall not be partial, the Unit Certificate with the form on the reverse duly filled in shall be submitted to the Trust and the Trust shall repurchase the units at the repurchase price ruling on the acceptance date. The gift made by purchase of units in favour of the child is irrevocable and the donor has no right to the units at all.

(ii) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-clause (i):

- (a) The Trust shall not sell or repurchase units during such period as the Development Bank may in writing direct.
- (b) The Trust shall not be under an obligation to sell or repurchase units—
 - (i) On such days as are not working days; and
 - (ii) During the period when the Register of Unit-holders is closed in connection with (as notified by the Trust) the Annual Closing of the Books of Accounts.

Explanation

For the purpose of this Scheme, the term "Working Day" shall mean a day which has not been either (i) notified under the Negotiable Instruments Act, 1881 to be a public holiday or (ii) notified by the Trust in the Gazette of India as the day on which the Head Office of the Trust will be closed.

- (iii) The contract for repurchase shall be deemed to have been concluded on the acceptance date, when an application by an applicant for repurchase of units has been made and has been accepted by the Trust.
- (iv) Payment for the units repurchased by the Trust shall be made as early as possible after the acceptance date in such manner as the applicant may indicate in his application. No interest shall, on any account be payable on the amount due to the applicant, and the cost of realisation of the cheque or draft sent by the Trust shall be borne by the applicant.

11. Sale or Repurchase price to be as on the acceptance date

Every sale/repurchase of units by the Trust shall be as on the acceptance date at the price prevailing on that day.

Provided that during such period not exceeding thirty days, as may be determined by the Trust, immediately following the date of the reopening of the register of unit-holders after its closure in connection with (as notified by the Trust) the annual closing of the books and accounts, the Trust may sell units at such fixed price as may be determined by it.

The price at which a unit will be sold by the Trust (hereafter referred to as the "Sale Price") and the price at which a unit will be repurchased by the Trust (hereinafter referred to as "Repurchase Price") shall be determined by the Trust on the first of every month if the first happens to be a holiday, the next working day and shall apply to sales during that month.

(b) The sale price shall be arrived at by dividing the value (determined as hereinafter indicated) as at the close of business on the working day immediately preceding the day on which the sale price is determined, of the assets pertaining to this Scheme, reduced by liabilities pertaining to this Scheme, not being contingent liabilities or liabilities in respect of the initial capital and the unit capital including reserves, if any, as at the close of business on the said working day, by the number of units deemed to be in issue as at the close of business on the said day, adding thereto such sum as in the opinion of the Trust is adequate to cover brokerage, commission, taxes, if any, stamp duties, other charges in relation to the acquisition of investments by the Trust and Management expenses and adjusting upwards the resulting price by not more than five paise per unit.

(c) The repurchase price shall be arrived at by dividing the value (determined as hereinafter indicated) as at the close of business on the working day immediately preceding the day on which the repurchase price is determined, of the assets pertaining to this Scheme, reduced by liabilities pertaining to this Scheme, not being contingent liabilities or liabilities in respect of the unit capital including reserves, if any, as at the close of business on the said working day, by the number of units deemed to be in issue as at the close of business on the said day, deducting therefrom such sum as in the opinion of the Trust is adequate to cover brokerage, commission, taxes, if any, stamp duties and other charges in relation to the realisation of investments by the Trust and adjusting downwards the resulting price by not more than 5 paise per unit.

(d) The sale price or the repurchase price of a unit shall be arrived at on the basis of the material available with the Trust on the day on which the sale price or the repurchase price as the case may be is arrived at.

(e) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in Sub-Clauses b, c and d when the Trust is satisfied that in the interest of the Trust, the Unitholders and of the continuance and growth of the Scheme, it is necessary or expedient to do so, the Trust may determine the sale price or repurchase price or both at a rate which may not necessarily be in accordance with the provisions of Sub-Clauses (b) and (c) and any such determination shall be deemed to be in the interest of the Trust and the unitholders.

12. Publication of sale and repurchase price

The Trust shall, as early as possible after the determination of the sale and repurchase prices, publish in such manner as it may deem fit, the sale and repurchase prices of units.

13. Valuation of assets pertaining to this Scheme

(1) For the purchases of valuation of the assets under sub-clauses (b) & (c) of Clause (11), the assets shall be classified into (A) Cash (B) Investments and (C) other assets.

(2) Investments shall be valued by taking :—

I. (a) the closing prices on the stock exchange as on the working day preceding the day on which the valuation was made on the securities held by the Trust pertaining to the Scheme :

Provided where a security is quoted on more than one stock exchange the manner of determining the price of such security shall be decided by the Trust;

(b) Where any investment was not, during the relevant period, dealt in, or quoted on any recognised stock exchange, such value as the Trust may, in the circumstances, consider to be the fair value of each investment; and

II. adding thereto—

(a) In the case of interest earning deposits interest accrued but not taken credit for;

(b) In the case of Government Securities and Debentures interest accrued but not taken credit for; and

(c) In the case of Preference Shares and Equity Shares quoted Ex-Dividend, any dividend declared but not received.

(3) Other assets shall be valued at their book value.

14. Manner of preparation of Unit Certificate

The unit certificates may be engraved or lithographed or printed as the Board may, from time to time, determine and shall be signed on behalf of the Trust by two persons duly authorised by the Trust. Every such signature shall be autographic until such time as an arrangement is authorised by the Trust adopting some method of mechanical signature; thereafter, all such signatures will be effected by the method so adopted. No unit certificate shall be valid unless and until it is so signed. Unit certificates so signed, shall be valid and binding notwithstanding but before the issue thereof, any person whose signature appears thereon, may have ceased to be a person authorised to sign unit certificates on behalf of the Trust.

Provided further that should the unit certificates so prepared contain the signature of an authorised person who however is dead at the time of issue of the certificate, the Trust may by a method considered by it as more suitable cancel the signature of such a person appearing on the certificate and have the signature of any other authorised person affixed to it. The unit certificate so issued shall also be valid.

15. Trust not to be recognised regarding unit certificates

The child in whose name a unit certificate has been issued shall be the only person to be recognised by the Trust as the unitholder and as having any right, title or interest in/or to such unit certificate and the units which it represents; and the Trust may recognise such unitholder as absolute owner thereof and shall not be bound by any Trust law, rule or practice expressly provided for or by some court of competent jurisdiction ordered, to recognise any Trust or equity or other interest affecting the title to any unit certificate or the units thereby represented.

16. Exchange of unit certificate and procedure when certificate is mutilated, defaced, lost etc.

(a) In case the unit certificate shall be mutilated or defaced the Trust in its discretion may issue to the applicant entitled a new unit certificate representing the same aggregate number of units as the mutilated or defaced unit certificate. In case the unit certificate should be lost, stolen or destroyed the Trust may, in its discretion issue to the applicant entitled a new unit certificate in lieu thereof. No such new unit certificate shall be issued unless the applicant shall previously have :

(i) furnished to the Trust evidence satisfactory to it of the mutilation, defacement, loss, theft or destruction of the original unit certificate.

(ii) paid all expenses in connection with the investigation of the facts.

(iii) (In case of mutilation or defacement) produced and surrendered to the Trust the mutilated or defaced unit certificate; and

(iv) Furnish to the Trust such indemnity as it may require. The Trust shall not incur any liability for issuing such certificate in good faith under the provisions of this Clause.

(b) Before issuing any certificate under the provisions of this Clause, the Trust may require the applicant for the unit certificate to pay a fee of Rs. 3/- per unit certificate issued by it together with a sum sufficient in the opinion of the Trust to cover stamp duty, if any, or other charges or taxes including postal registration charges that may be payable in connection with the issue and despatch of such certificate.

17. Register of applicants

The following provisions shall have effect with regard to the registration of applicants :

- (1) A register of the applicants shall be kept by the Trust at its Offices and there shall be entered in the register :
 - (a) the names and addresses of the applicants;
 - (b) the distinctive number of the unit certificate and the number of units held by every such child; and
 - (c) the date on which such units were issued in the name of the child.
- (2) Any change of name or address on the part of any applicant shall be notified to the Trust, which, on being satisfied of such change and on compliance with such formalities as it may require, shall alter the register accordingly.
- (3) Except when the register is closed in accordance with the provisions in that behalf hereinafter contained, the register shall during business hours (subject to such reasonable restrictions as the Trust may impose but so that not less than two hours on each business day shall be allowed for inspection) be open to inspection by any applicant without charge.
- (4) The register will be closed at such times and for such periods as the Trust may from time to time determine provided that it shall not be closed for more than 30 days in any one year; the Trust shall give notice of such closure by advertisement in such newspapers as the Board may direct.
- (5) No notice of any trust express, implied or constructive shall be entered on the register in respect of any unit.

18. Receipt by unitholder to discharge Trust

The receipt of either parent/legal guardian/the child attaining majority, for any money paid to him/her in respect of the units represented by the certificate shall be a good discharge to the Trust.

19. Death of the child in whose favour units have been issued

(a) In the event of the death of the child in whose favour units have been issued, before the completion of the age of 21, the Trust shall pursuant to what has been stated in Clause 6 herein, recognise the alternate child if any as the person entitled to the amount payable by the Trust in respect of the units issued in favour of the child.

(b) In the event of the death of the child, the alternate child shall continue in the Scheme until he/she attains the age of 21 provided however the applicant furnishes to the Trust all the necessary particulars incidental thereto and as may be called for by the Trust to enable the alternate child to continue in the Scheme.

(c) In the event of the death of the child before attaining the age of 21 and where no alternate child has been named the executors or administrators of the deceased child or a holder of a succession certificate issued under Part X of the Indian Succession Act (39 of 1925) shall be the only person/s who will be recognised by the Trust as having any title to the units.

(d) Any person becoming entitled to the units consequent upon the death of the child may upon producing such evidence as to his title as the Trust shall consider sufficient be paid the repurchase value of all the units standing to the credit of the deceased child after all the formalities in connection with the claim have been complied with by the claimant.

(e) In the event of the simultaneous death of the child and the alternate child where one has been named, the legal heirs of the deceased child alone will have a right to claim for the units standing to the credit of the deceased child. The legal heirs of the alternate child can stake no claim whatsoever.

20. Transfer of Units

No transfer of units issued under this Scheme shall be permissible.

21. Investment limits

(a) Investments by the Trust from the funds of the Scheme in the securities of any one company shall not exceed 15% of the securities issued and outstanding of such companies. Provided that the aggregate of such investments in the capital initially issued by new industrial undertakings shall not at any time exceed 5% of the total amount of the said funds.

(b) The limits prescribed under sub-clause (a) shall not apply to investments of the Trust in bonds, debentures and deposits of a company whether secured or not.

22. Income Distribution

The distribution of the income under the Scheme shall be in the following manner viz.

- (a) The income distribution on the units issued under the Scheme shall be declared as soon as may be after the closing of the annual accounts as on the 30th of June each year.
- (b) The Trust shall depending upon the income accruing under the Scheme each year and on various limiting factors, pay an income distribution of not less than 12½% (Twelve and half percent) every year.
- (c) The income distribution for the year ended 30th June 1986 shall be payable pro-rata as the Scheme will come into force only on 14th April 1986.
- (d) The entire amount of income distribution payable under the Scheme shall not be sent to the applicant but shall be deemed to have applied towards purchase of further units including fraction of units at the sale price ruling in the accounting year beginning in July.
- (e) Till the completion of the age of 21 income distribution due on the units comprised in the certificate and on the units deemed to have been allotted under the paragraph hereinabove shall be deemed to have been automatically reinvested in further units by the Trust in accordance with the provisions of the Scheme.
- (f) When between the date of completion of the age of 21 and the date of surrendering the unit certificate an income distribution is declared by the Trust, such income distribution shall accrue on the units standing to the credit of the child but shall not be reinvested in further units.
- (g) In the event of the death of the child and where no alternate child has been named, income distribution declared between the date of death and the date on which the claims of the legal representatives of the deceased child are admitted by the Trust, shall be deemed to have accrued to the units but under no circumstances will the said income distribution be reinvested in further units.

23. Declaration of Bonus Dividend

The Trust may having regard to the income under the Scheme and other factors as may be deemed necessary declare a bonus dividend and pay it to the unitholders under the Scheme once every five years. The bonus, if declared will accrue and be payable pro rata on the basis of date of entry into the Scheme. The bonus so declared will also be reinvested in further units and will be reflected in the annual statement of accounts which will be forwarded to the child as given in Clause 24 herein. This does not confer upon any unitholder the right to demand payment of bonus nor make it incumbent upon the Trust to declare the bonus. The Trust reserves the right to vary the quantum of bonus to be declared and the intervals in which they will be declared and the decision of the Board in this regard shall be final.

24. Once a year, the Trust shall forward to the child at the address of the applicant or, whenever the applicant so desires, at the address of another person nominated by him in this regard a statement setting out, among other things, the number of units issued to the child and the number of units deemed to have been allotted from out of the income distribution and/or bonus dividend if any declared in pursuance thereof.

25. Maturity under the Scheme

(a) The Child shall continue to participate in the Scheme till child attains the age of 21 years.

(b) When the child reaches 21 years on surrendering to the Trust, the Unit Certificate issued to the child under the Scheme, the Trust shall repurchase

- (i) all the units comprised in the certificate; and
- (ii) the units deemed to have been allotted from out of the income distribution/bonus dividend in terms of the above paragraph, at the ruling repurchase price of units.

The date of completion of the age of 18/21 years as the case may be will be determined only on the basis of the declaration of the child's age made at the time of submitting the application.

If no application for repurchase is made by the child when he attains the age of 21 years, the income distribution, if any, declared will accrue to the units outstanding but the income distribution will not be reinvested in further units.

26. Publication of accounts

The Trust shall as soon as may be after the 30th June of each year cause to be published in such manner as the Board may decide, accounts in the manner specified by the Board, showing the working of the Scheme during the period ending on the 30th June. The Trust, shall on request in writing received from a unitholder, furnish him a copy of the accounts so published.

27. Additions and amendments to scheme

The Board may from time to time and/or otherwise amend this scheme and any amendment thereof will be notified in the official Gazette.

28. Scheme to be binding on applicant

The terms of this Scheme, including any amendments thereof from time to time, shall be binding on each unitholder and every other person claiming through him as if he had expressly agreed that they should be so binding.

29. Copy of Scheme to be made available

A copy of this Scheme incorporating all amendments thereto shall be made available for inspection at the offices of the Trust at all times during its business hours and may be supplied by the Trust to any person on application and on making a payment of Rs. 5/-.

30. Benefits to the unitholders

All benefits accruing under the Scheme in respect of capital reserves and surpluses if any at the time of the closure of the Scheme shall be available only to the child who holds the units for the full terms of the Scheme till its closure.

31. Power to construe provisions

Should any doubt arise as to the interpretation of any at the provisions of the Scheme, Chairman or in his absence the Executive Trustee shall have powers to construe the provisions of the Scheme, in so far such construction is not in any manner prejudicial or contrary to the basic structure of the Scheme and such decision shall be conclusive.

32. Relaxation/Variation/Modification of Provisions

The Chairman or in his absence the Executive Trustee of the Trust may in order to mitigate hardship or for smooth and easy operation of the Scheme relax, vary or modify any of the provisions of the scheme in case of any unitholder, or class of unitholders upon such conditions as may be deemed expedient.

33. Termination of the Scheme

The Trust reserves the right to terminate the Scheme at any time by giving a notice of not less than two weeks in one of the leading English dailies, without assigning any reason whatsoever if it feels in the interest of the unitholders and the Trust is expedient so to do.
